

INDIVIDUAL & SMALL-GROUP CREATIVE SESSIONS

Personalized creativity in a welcoming,
low-pressure environment

The Creative Jam offers individual and small-group creative sessions for children and adults who would benefit from personalized instruction, a quieter setting, flexible pacing, or projects designed around their interests and abilities.

Sessions are open to the general public and may be especially helpful for:

- Beginning artists who would like extra guidance
- Children or adults who prefer smaller groups
- Neurodivergent creatives
- Homeschool students
- Participants with sensory or communication considerations
- Friends, siblings, or family members who would like to create together
- Anyone looking for a personalized creative experience

Possible Activities*

Projects may include:

- Drawing
- Painting and color exploration
- Painting ceramics
- Mixed-media art
- Mosaics
- Air-dry clay and sculpting
- Wooden projects
- Crafts inspired by books, animals, dinosaurs, dragons, nature, and other personal interests

*Activities are selected based on the participant's age, interests, abilities, and creative goals.

Rates

60-Minute Individual or Small-Group Session

$75 for up to two participants

Standard art materials are included.

Projects requiring specialty materials, including certain ceramics, mosaics, canvases, or art kits, may have an additional materials charge. Any additional cost will be discussed and approved before the session.

Sessions are available by appointment and may be scheduled individually or on a recurring basis.

Parents, caregivers, respite providers, or other support people are welcome to attend. An adult caregiver must remain on-site for young children and for participants who require assistance with communication, focus, mobility, personal care, or fine-motor tasks.

Participants are encouraged to bring any assistive technology, communication devices, adaptive tools, sensory supports, or other accommodations they regularly use.

We are happy to explore reasonable accommodations whenever possible.

If specialized adaptive materials or equipment must be purchased specifically for a participant, any additional costs will be discussed and approved in advance.

Creative sessions are recreational and educational art experiences. They are not art therapy, occupational therapy, behavioral therapy, or clinical services.

Location

The Creative Jam

6 State Route 149

Lake George, NY 12831

www.creativejamspace.com creativejamspace@gmail.com

To inquire about availability or request a personalized session, please contact The Creative Jam.